

Pennsylvania Academic Standards
(History, US History, and Civics and Government)
met in whole or in part* by this exhibition

The text for this exhibition is written (with the exception of field-specific language) for the sixth-grade level. For more information on Pennsylvania's Department of Education Standards, and more related standards, please visit PDE SAS.*

5.1 6: Principles and Documents of Government

How Senate Library Exhibition meets this standard: The entire exhibition allows the viewer the opportunity to fulfill this standard through an examination of the various sources on display.

PDE Standard:

8.1.5.B: Classify and analyze fact and opinion from multiple points of view, and secondary sources as related to historical events.

How Senate Library Exhibition meets this standard: The entire exhibition allows the viewer the opportunity to fulfill this standard through an examination of the various points of view, secondary sources, and facts related to the historical events represented in this exhibition.

5.2.6. C: Describe the importance of political leadership and public service

The entire exhibition fulfills this standard through materials on display which were created by government officials for the public's benefit.

5.3.6. A Describe the responsibilities and powers of the three branches of Government.

The entire exhibition fulfills this standard through materials

5.3.6. C Describe how local, state, and national governments provide services.

The entire exhibition fulfills this standard through diverse materials produced by local, state, and federal governments to protection and benefit of the general public, both in state, and the early colonies.

5.4 How International Relationships Functions

A portion of this exhibition fulfills this standard by having the viewer observe the Votes and Proceedings of the House of Representatives, December 5, 1745/1746. The journal dates back to when the Colonies were under British rule.

5.4.6. A Identify how countries have varying interests

A portion of this exhibition fulfills this standard by having primary sources that documents interactions between United States and European Countries.

PDE Standard:

8.1.6.A: Explain continuity and change over time using sequential order and context of events.

How Senate Library Exhibition meets this standard: The entire exhibition allows the viewer the opportunity to fulfill this standard through an examination of the various primary and secondary sources that changed over time. Beginning with sources from Pennsylvania's Colonial era to the early twentieth century.

PDE Standard:

8.2.5.B: Illustrate concepts and knowledge of historical documents, artifacts, and places critical to Pennsylvania history.

How Senate Library Exhibition meets this standard: The entire exhibition demonstrates this standard by using various, diverse sources to illustrate artifacts, objects, and documents critical to Pennsylvania history.

PDE Standard:

8.2.6. B: Describe the importance of significant historical documents, artifacts, and places critical to Pennsylvania history.

How Senate Library Exhibition meets this standard: All of the printed materials on display throughout this exhibition memorialize Pennsylvania's history.

8.2.6.C: Explain how continuity and change have impacted Pennsylvania history: --Belief system and religions; commerce and industry; technology; politics and government; physical and human geographic; social organizations.

The entire exhibition fulfills this standard (as it applies to politics and government) by allowing the viewer to observe how the State, Senate, and House Libraries have developed over time.