

Pennsylvania Academic Standards
(History, US History, and Civics and Government)
met in whole or in part* by this exhibition

The text for this exhibition is written (with the exception of field-specific language) for the sixth grade level. For more information on Pennsylvania's Department of Education Standards, and more related standards, please visit PDE SAS.*

5.1 6: Principles and Documents of Government

How Senate Library Exhibition meets this standard: The entire exhibition allows the viewer the opportunity to fulfill this standard through an examination of the various sources on display.

PDE Standard:

8.1.5.B: Classify and analyze fact and opinion from multiple points of view, and secondary sources as related to historical events.

How Senate Library Exhibition meets this standard: The entire exhibition allows the viewer the opportunity to fulfill this standard through an examination of the various points of view, secondary sources, and facts related to the historical events represented in this exhibition.

5.3.5.C: Describe the role of local and state government officials.

State officials, both in their official capacity and in their military role, are the focal point of the exhibit. Seeking to explain the changing role of state officials with the times, the exhibit showcases the multiple roles each individual played in their state government, in their national military and as an international representative.

5.3.6. C Describe how local, state, and national governments provide services.

A portion of this exhibition fulfills this standard through diverse materials produced by federal governments for the protection and benefit of the general public, both in state, and internationally.

5.4 How International Relationships Functions

A portion of this exhibition fulfills this standard by having the viewer observe items from Global Conflicts.

5.4.6. A Identify how countries have varying interests

A portion of this exhibition fulfills this standard by having primary sources that document interactions between United States and European Countries.

Standard - 5.4.6.B Explain the difference between allies and adversaries.

The entire exhibition demonstrates this standard by having primary and secondary sources that documents the states and countries who fought with and against each other during times of conflict.

PDE Standard:

8.1.6.A: Explain continuity and change over time using sequential order and context of events.

How Senate Library Exhibition meets this standard: The entire exhibition allows the viewer the opportunity to fulfill this standard through an examination of the various primary and secondary sources that changed over time. Beginning with the American Civil War to the present War on Global Terror.

PDE Standard:

8.2.5.B: Illustrate concepts and knowledge of historical documents, artifacts, and places critical to Pennsylvania history.

How Senate Library Exhibition meets this standard: The entire exhibition demonstrates this standard by using various, diverse sources to illustrate artifacts, objects, and documents critical to Pennsylvania, The United States of America, and World history.

PDE Standard:

8.2.6. B: Describe the importance of significant historical documents, artifacts, and places critical to Pennsylvania history.

How Senate Library Exhibition meets this standard: All of the printed materials on display throughout this exhibition memorialize Pennsylvania's history.