

Exhibition Goals:We Remember: Service to the State and Nation

Generally, the viewer will recognize that these stories have been brought to life for the first time through this exhibition. Thanks to the many families' whose records and treasured heirlooms have preserved this past, the Senate Library is now able to honor and share it with a wider audience.

- The viewer will be able to identify Members and Librarians of the Pennsylvania Senate who also were involved in major military conflicts throughout the history of the United States of America.
- The viewer will remember and honor, as part of the many holidays dedicated to veterans, the military service of the Senate's many veterans – both past and present.
- The viewer will recognize that Members and Librarians of the Pennsylvania Senate came to the legislature with their own unique perspectives, often based on their military service/career.
- The viewer will understand that Members and Librarians of the Pennsylvania Senate have gone beyond the call of duty, as evidenced by their distinguished careers during wartime.
- The viewer will be exposed to the major conflicts involving what is known today as the United States of America, from the 1750s until the present day. (Specifically, the French and Indian War, the Pennsylvania Whiskey Rebellion, War of 1812, American Civil War, World War I, World War II, Cold War, Korean War, Vietnam War, Iraq War, and War on Terror).
